(1) For each category of Exchange Offers, the Total Exchange Consideration (as defined below) is payable in a principal amount of the applicable series of New Notes (as defined below) specified in the tables above per each $1,000 principal amount of the specified series of Existing Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Early Participation Date (as defined below) and accepted for exchange, and includes the Early Participation Premium (as defined below). Eligible Holders who validly tender Existing Notes after the Early Participation Date, but at or prior to the Expiration Date (as defined below), will receive the Exchange Consideration (as defined below) which does not include the Early Participation Premium. Neither the Total Exchange Consideration nor the Exchange Consideration includes accrued and unpaid interest on the Existing Notes, which will be payable in cash on Existing Notes accepted for exchange in addition to the Total Exchange Consideration or Exchange Consideration, as applicable, as described in the Offering Memorandum.

(2) Hypotheticals are shown for illustrative purposes only. Actual amounts will be determined on the Price Determination Date (as defined below). The Corporation makes no representation with respect to the actual consideration that may be paid, and such amounts may be greater or less than those shown in the above tables. The hypothetical Total Exchange Consideration is the applicable hypothetical principal amount of the applicable series of New Notes issuable in respect of each $1,000 principal amount of the applicable series of Existing Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Early Participation Date and accepted for exchange. The hypothetical Total Exchange Consideration is based on the fixed spread for the applicable series of Existing Notes plus the bid-side yield of the Reference U.S. Treasury Security for that series of Existing Notes appearing on the applicable Bloomberg Reference Page as of 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on December 1, 2017.

(3) Originally issued by Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc.

(4) Listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

The principal amount of 2023 New Fixed/Floating Rate Senior Notes and 2028 New Fixed/Floating Rate Senior Notes (together, the “New Notes”) issuable in all of the Exchange Offers is initially limited to $4,000,000,000 (the “Overall New Notes Issuance Limit”), and the principal amount of New Notes issuable in each category of Exchange Offers is initially limited to $2,000,000,000 (the “Maximum 2023 New Notes Amount” or “Maximum 2028 New Notes Amount”). However, the Corporation intends to increase these limits to the extent necessary to allow the acceptance of all Existing Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Early Participation Date up to an overall New Notes limit of $12,000,000,000 and a New Notes limit for each category of Exchange Offers of $6,000,000,000. In addition, the principal amount of each series of Existing Notes that is accepted pursuant to the Exchange Offers will be subject to the “acceptance priority level” (in numerical priority order) set forth in the tables above and as further described in the Offering Memorandum.

The “Price Determination Date” for the determination of the Total Exchange Consideration and the Exchange Consideration will be 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on December 18, 2017, unless the Early Participation Date is extended, in which case a new Price Determination Date may be established.

The “Total Exchange Consideration” for the Existing Notes of a series validly tendered at or prior to the Early Participation Date, and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline (as defined below), is equal to the discounted value on the expected Early Settlement Date (as defined below) of the remaining payments of principal and interest (excluding accrued interest) per $1,000 principal amount of the Existing Notes to the applicable maturity date of Existing Notes, using a yield equal to the sum of: (x) the bid-side yield on the applicable Reference U.S. Treasury Security set forth with respect to each series of Existing Notes in the tables above plus (y) the applicable fixed spread set forth with respect to each series of Existing Notes in the tables above. The Total Exchange Consideration includes the “Early Participation Premium” of $50 principal amount of the applicable series of New Notes for each $1,000 principal amount of Existing Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Early Participation Date.

The “Exchange Consideration” for the Existing Notes validly tendered after the Early Participation Date but at or prior to the Expiration Date is equal to the Total Exchange Consideration minus the Early Participation Premium.

The “Early Settlement Date” is expected to be December 20, 2017, which is the third business day following the Early Participation Date, and the “Final Settlement Date” is expected to be January 8, 2018, which is the second business day following the Expiration Date.

The Exchange Offers will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 4, 2018, unless extended by the Corporation (the “Expiration Date”). To be eligible to receive the Total Exchange Consideration, which includes the Early Participation Premium, Eligible Holders must validly tender their Existing Notes at or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 15, 2017 (unless extended by the Corporation, the “Early Participation Date”). Valid tenders of Existing Notes may be validly withdrawn at any time at or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 15, 2017 (unless extended by the Corporation, the “Withdrawal Deadline”), but not thereafter, unless otherwise required by law.

Consummation of each Exchange Offer is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions including (i) the condition that at least $1,000,000,000 of each series of New Notes be issued in the Exchange Offers, (ii) the condition that the Existing Notes and the New Notes receive certain accounting and tax treatment (as described in the Offering Memorandum) and (iii) the absence of certain adverse legal and market developments and other customary conditions. Each Exchange Offer may be amended, extended or terminated individually.

The Exchange Offers are only made, and copies of the documents relating to the Exchange Offers will only be made available, to a holder of Existing Notes who has certified in an eligibility letter (each, an “Eligible Holder”) certain matters to the Corporation, including its status as (i) a “qualified institutional buyer” as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or (ii) a person outside the United States who is (a) not a “U.S. person” as defined in Rule 902 under the Securities Act, (b) not acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. person and (c) a “non-U.S. qualified offeree” as defined in the Offering Memorandum. Holders of Existing Notes who desire access to the electronic eligibility certification should contact D.F. King & Co., Inc., the information agent for the Exchange Offers, at 866-342-4881 (U.S. toll-free), 212-269-5550 (collect), or at bac@dfking.com. Holders that wish to receive the Offering Memorandum and the Letter of Transmittal can certify eligibility at <http://www.dfking.com/bac>.

If and when issued, the New Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws. Therefore, the New Notes may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws. The Corporation will enter into a registration rights agreement with respect to the New Notes.
