Bank of America reports record first quarter earnings of $5 billion, or $1.07 per share

Net income up 14 percent

Good momentum across businesses

Capital markets income strong

Efficiency ratio below 50 percent

CHARLOTTE — Bank of America Corporation today reported that net income in the first quarter of 2006 rose 14 percent to $4.99 billion from $4.39 billion a year earlier. Pershare earnings (diluted) were unchanged from a year earlier at $1.07. Return on average common equity for the first quarter was 15.44 percent. Under purchase accounting rules, results for the first quarter of 2005 do not include MBNA, which was acquired on January 1, 2006.

Excluding merger and restructuring charges of $98 million pre-tax, equal to 1 cent per share, the company earned $5.05 billion, or $1.08 per share, in the first quarter of 2006. A year earlier merger and restructuring charges of $112 million reduced per-share earnings by 2 cents.

Revenue grew 31 percent while noninterest expense was up 26 percent. However, on a pro forma basis (including MBNA's first quarter of 2005 results), revenue increased almost 10 percent while noninterest expense was up only 5 percent. Information regarding pro forma results was included in the Form 8-K filed on April 10, 2006.

This significant operating leverage was driven by continued strong performance in the consumer businesses as well as improvements in trading account profits, equity investment gains and investment banking income.

The current quarter's results included $320 million, or 5 cents per share, in expense from the impact of SFAS 123R, which accelerates the recognition of certain equity-based compensation expenses for retirement-eligible associates. In addition, as previously announced, the company terminated certain derivatives used as hedges in asset liability management that did not qualify for SFAS 133 hedge accounting at a cost of $175 million, or 2 cents per share.

"We are off to a great start in 2006," said Kenneth D. Lewis, chairman and chief executive officer. "We have strong momentum in all our businesses as the benefits from continued execution in our consumer businesses were accompanied this quarter by a rebound in trading and good performance in investment banking and wealth management."

First Quarter 2006 Highlights

- Bank of America maintained its position as a leading online financial services retailer. Sales of products through E-Commerce during the quarter were 1.1 million, as the percentage of retail sales coming through the E-Commerce channel rose to 10.8 percent of total production. The company now has a record 19.6 million active online customers who paid $44.4 billion worth of bills in the first quarter of 2006. During the quarter, the bank announced new e-alerts that will help customers monitor accounts and detect fraud.
- The company added approximately 603,000 net new checking accounts in the quarter, driven by the bank's Keep the Change™ and customer referral programs. Net new savings accounts grew by more than 483,000 during the quarter primarily due to the reintroduction of the Risk Free CD and the Keep the Change™ program. Bank of America now has more than 54 million checking and savings accounts.
- Home equity production volume increased $3.5 billion, or 23 percent, from the first quarter of 2005 to $18.6 billion. At 8.4 percent, Bank of America has the largest market share as of year-end 2005, with a home equity portfolio now exceeding $70 billion.
- Mass market small business sales increased more than 21 percent from the first quarter of 2005, driven by increases in small business online banking and small business credit products.
- Capital Markets and Advisory Services had a record quarter with more than $2.2 billion in revenue, driven by double-digit revenue increases in Global Liquid Products and Global Credit Products as compared to the first quarter of 2005. According to Loan Pricing Corporation, Bank of America is ranked number one in syndicated loans and leveraged loans as measured by number of deals.
- Total assets under management in Wealth and Investment Management grew to nearly $494 billion, an increase of 14 percent from the first quarter of 2005. Based on assets under management, 82% of assets were invested in funds (equity, fixed income, and money market funds) where at least one share class placed in the top two quartiles of their peer group.¹

More

The share class earning the ranking may have limited eligibility and may not be available to all investors. Peer group rankings where provided by Morningstar for equity funds, Lipper for fixed income funds and iMoneyNet for money market funds.

First Quarter 2006 MBNA Transition Highlights

- Cost savings for the merger in the first quarter were $163 million pre-tax, equal to 2 cents per share, due primarily to personnel reductions and marketing synergies. The transition is on track to meet projected savings targets.
- As of March 31, about one third of the projected 6,000 job reductions have been achieved, the vast majority through attrition since the merger was announced on June 30, 2005.
- Bank of America began offering more than 300 MBNA affinity cards through bankofamerica.com and in pilots involving 700 banking centers. Early results are exceeding expectations.
- Bank of America renewed relationships with several key MBNA affinity partners during the quarter. Bank of America, through its acquisition of MBNA, has worldwide affinity relationships with more than 5,000 organizations.

First Quarter 2006 Financial Summary

Revenue

Revenue on a fully taxable-equivalent basis grew 31 percent to $17.94 billion from $13.74 billion in the first quarter of 2005. Last year's results did not include MBNA.

Net interest income on a fully taxable-equivalent basis was $9.04 billion, compared to $7.71 billion the previous year. In addition to MBNA, the increase was driven by the impact of consumer, middle market, commercial and large corporate loan growth and increases in asset liability management activity primarily due to changes in interest rates. The impact of these increases was partially offset by a lower trading-related contribution. The net interest yield increased two basis points to 2.98 percent.

Noninterest income was $8.90 billion compared to $6.03 billion. In addition to MBNA, these results were driven by continued strength in service fee income, increases in trading account profits, equity investment gains, investment banking income and card income.

Gains on sales of debt securities were $14 million in the quarter compared to $659 million in the first quarter of 2005.

The efficiency ratio for the first quarter of 2006 was 49.74 percent. Noninterest expense increased to $8.92 billion compared to $7.06 billion a year ago. In addition to MBNA and the increase in personnel costs due to changes in equity-based compensation accounting, expenses were higher due to increased marketing spending related to consumer banking initiatives. Also included in first quarter 2006 expenses were $98 million in pre-tax merger and restructuring charges related to the MBNA acquisition.

Credit Quality

Credit quality was stable. As anticipated, net charge-offs decreased substantially from the fourth quarter of 2005 due to the impact of bankruptcy reform. Net charge-offs were down compared to the first quarter of 2005 due to lower bankruptcies, partially offset by growth and seasoning of the card portfolio and new advances on accounts previously securitized. Provision expense rose compared to the first quarter of 2005 due to the addition of MBNA, a slower rate of improvement in commercial credit quality, and an increase in reserves to cover the anticipated return to a more normal level of bankruptcy-related charge-offs.

- Provision for credit losses was $1.27 billion, down from $1.4 billion in the fourth quarter of 2005, and up from $580 million a year earlier.
- Net charge-offs were $822 million, or 0.54 percent of average loans and leases. Reported net charge-offs excluded $210 million, or 0.14 percent, as a result of impaired loan accounting for MBNA. Net charge-offs were $1.65 billion, or 1.16 percent, in the fourth quarter of 2005 and $889 million, or 0.69 percent, in the first quarter of 2005. Total managed net losses were $1.48 billion, or 0.84 percent of managed loans and leases. This compared to $1.71 billion, or 1.19 percent, on December 31, 2005 and $1.03 billion, or 0.78 percent, on March 31, 2005.
- Nonperforming assets were $1.68 billion, or 0.27 percent of total loans, leases and foreclosed properties, as of March 31, 2006. This compared to $1.60 billion, or 0.28 percent, at December 31, 2005 and $2.34 billion, or 0.44 percent on March 31, 2005.
- The allowance for loan and lease losses was $9.07 billion, or 1.46 percent of loans and leases, at March 31, 2006. This compared to $8.05 billion, or 1.40 percent at December 31, 2005 and $8.31 billion, or 1.57 percent, at March 31, 2005, which do not include MBNA.

Capital Management

Total shareholders' equity was $129.43 billion at March 31, 2006. Period-end assets grew to $1.38 trillion. The Tier 1 Capital Ratio was 8.45 percent, up from 8.25 percent on December 31, 2005 and 8.26 percent a year earlier.

During the quarter, Bank of America paid a cash dividend of $0.50 per share. In conjunction with the MBNA acquisition, the company issued 631 million common shares. The company also issued 38.9 million shares primarily related to employee stock options and ownership plans, and repurchased 88.5 million common shares. Period-ending common shares issued and outstanding were 4.58 billion for the first quarter of 2006, compared to 4.00 billion for the fourth quarter of 2005 and 4.04 billion for the first quarter of 2005.

Revenue grew 49 percent and net income increased 42 percent from a year ago. Last year's first quarter did not include MBNA results. On a pro forma basis (including MBNA's first quarter of 2005 results), revenue increased 8 percent while net income increased 11 percent.

Results were driven by increased service charges due to new account growth, higher debit card income due to increased usage and higher credit card income as Bank of America's combination with MBNA showed early positive results. These increases were dampened by lower results in consumer real estate, which was affected by margin compression due in part to higher interest rates as compared to the first quarter of 2005.

Provision expense increased primarily due to the addition of MBNA and the increase in reserves to cover the anticipated return to a more normal level of bankruptcy-related charge-offs.

- Deposits had revenue of $3.99 billion and net income of $1.10 billion. Mass market small business deposits increased more than 6 percent to more than $75 billion as small business owners opened more than 54,000 net new checking accounts. Debit card revenue grew more than 26 percent, primarily driven by a 24 percent increase in purchase volume resulting from account growth, increased usage and higher average ticket size.
- Card Services had revenue of $5.28 billion and net income of $1.32 billion. More than 3.1 million Bank of America and MBNA cards were issued in the quarter through banking center, E-Commerce and direct mail channels, and managed Card Services loans topped $185 billion.
- Home Equity had revenue of $351 million and net income of $116 million.
- Mortgage had revenue of $347 million and net income of $72 million.

During 2005 Bank of America announced the combination of Global Business and Financial Services and Global Capital Markets and Investment Banking into a new segment called Global Corporate and Investment Banking. This combination was effective January 1, 2006.

Revenue increased 2 percent to $5.56 billion from $5.45 billion. Net income was lower by 14 percent due to higher provision expense and compensation costs. The impact of a flattening yield curve and a reduction in the market value of the bank's credit default swap book also lowered results.

The revenue increase was driven by 19 percent growth in Capital Markets and Advisory Services, as investments in personnel and trading infrastructure helped produce record trading and investment banking results. Investment banking revenue grew 40 percent from the first quarter of 2005, as increased market activity and deal flow produced strong results in advisory fees, debt underwriting and equity underwriting.

Provision expense rose $190 million, primarily due to a provision benefit in the first quarter of 2005 resulting from actions to reduce certain Latin American portfolio exposures as well as a slower rate of improvement in commercial credit quality.

- Capital Markets and Advisory Services had revenue of $2.22 billion and net income of $519 million.
- Business Lending had revenue of $1.34 billion and net income of $516 million. Tighter spreads narrowed net interest income for this sub-segment. Average loans were up 15 percent from a year ago due to increased credit line utilization and new business.
- Treasury Services had revenue of $1.63 billion and net income of $514 million. Results were driven by the effect of rising rates on deposit spreads, increased • transactions with existing clients, and the acquisition of new clients.

Revenue increased 8.5 percent and net income 5 percent from a year ago. Results were driven by higher asset management fees, higher loan volume and higher deposit revenue due in part to the continued migration of certain banking relationships from Global Consumer and Small Business Banking.

Asset management fees increased 10 percent from the first quarter of 2005 due to higher assets under management balances driven by net asset inflows of $33 billion in both short-term and long-term assets in addition to increased market values of $28 billion.

- Premier Banking & Investments had revenue of $717 million and net income of $229 million as Premier continues to build out both banking and brokerage services.
 Higher spreads on the deposit book helped boost results.
- The Private Bank had revenue of $539 million and net income of $144 million.
- Columbia Management had revenue of $363 million and net income of $80 million. Increased levels of assets under management led to higher asset management fees.

All Other

For the first quarter of 2006, All Other reflected $111 million of net income, compared to net income of $80 million for the first quarter of 2005. Equity Investment gains were $513 million in the first quarter of 2006 compared to $264 million in the first quarter of 2005. Included in All Other was the $175 million, or 2 cents per share, loss on derivatives used as economic hedges.

Note: Al de Molina, chief financial officer, will discuss first quarter 2006 results in a conference call at 9:30 a.m. (Eastern Time) today. The call can be accessed via a webcast available on the Bank of America Web site at http://investor.bankofamerica.com.

Reconciliation to GAAP financial measures

Supplemental financial data presented on an operating basis is a basis of presentation not defined by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) that excludes merger and restructuring charges. We believe that the exclusion of merger and restructuring charges, which represent events outside our normal operations, provides a meaningful period-to-period comparison and is more reflective of normalized operations.

Shareholder value added (SVA) is a key measure of performance not defined by GAAP that is used in managing our growth strategy orientation and strengthening our focus on generating long-term growth and shareholder value. SVA is used to evaluate the Corporation's use of equity (i.e. capital) at the individual unit level and is an integral component in the analytics for resource allocation. Using SVA as a performance measure places specific focus on whether incremental investments generate returns in excess of the costs of capital associated with those investments. Each business segment has a goal for growth in SVA reflecting the individual segment's business and customer strategy.

Other companies may define or calculate supplemental financial data differently. See the tables below for supplemental financial data and corresponding reconciliations to GAAP financial measures for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, December 31, 2005, September 30, 2005, June 30, 2005 and March 31, 2005.

(1) This table presents a non-GAAP financial measure. The impact of interest rate risk management derivatives is shown separately. Interest income and interest expense amounts, and the yields and and rates have been adjusted. Management believes this presentation is useful to investors because it adjusts for the impact of our hedging decisions and provides a better understanding of our hedging activities. The impact of interest rate management derivatives is not material to the average balances presented above.

- (2) Interest income excludes the impact of interest rate risk management contracts, which increased(decreased) interest income on time deposits placed and other short-term investments $(3) million, federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell $(91) million, commercial - domestic $111 million, commercial - foreign $1 million, and other earning assets $(10) million in the first quarter of 2006. (2) Results shown are defined by Columbia Management's calculation of its percentage of assets under management in the top two quartiles of categories based on Morningstar (Equity categories, Lipper (Fixed income categories) (iMoneyNet Money Market funds). The category percentile rank was calculated by ranking the three year gross return of share classes within the categories stated above. The assets of the number of funds within the top 2 quartile results include both were added and then divided by Columbia Management total assets under management. Had fees been included, rankings would have been lower. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

(1) December 31, 2005 industry balances have been restated to reflect the realignment of industry codes in conformance with Standard & Poor's industry classifications and internal industry management.

(2) Includes loans and leases, standby letters of credit and financial guarantees, derivative assets, assets held-for-sale and commercial letters of credit. Derivative assets are reported on a mark-to-market basis and have not been reduced by the amount of collateral applied. Derivative assets totaled $32.6 billion and $33.0 billion at March 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005. Derivative asset collateral totaled $17.4 billion and $17.1 billion at March 31, 2006 and December 31,2005, of which $9.3 billion and $9.3 billion represented cash and $8.1 billion and $7.8 billion represented other marketable securities.

(3) Industries are viewed from a variety of perspectives to best isolate the perceived risks. For purposes of this table, the real estate industry is defined based upon the borrowers' or counterparties' primary business activity using operating cash flow and primary source of repayment as key factors.

Information for periods beginning January 1, 2006 includes the MBNA acquisition; prior periods have not been restated.

For purposes of this table, the real estate industry is defined based upon the borrowers' or counterparties' primary business activity using operating cash flow and primary source of repayment as key factors.

(2) Represents net CDS index positions, which were principally investment grade. Indices are comprised of corporate credit derivatives that trade as an aggregate index value. Generally, they are grouped into portfolios based on specific ratings of credit quality or global geographic location. As of December 31, 2005, CDS index positions were sold to reflect a short-term positive view of the credit markets. This position was reduced by March 31, 2006 as credit markets began to stabilize.

(1) There is no generally accepted definition of emerging markets. The definition that we use includes all countries in Latin America excluding Cayman Islands and Bermuda; all countries in Asia Pacific excluding Japan, Australia and New Zealand; and all countries in Central and Eastern Europe excluding Greece.

(3) Derivative assets are reported on a mark-to-market basis and have not been reduced by the amount of collateral applied. Derivative asset collateral totaled $40 million and and $58 million at March 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005.

(4) Generally, cross-border resale agreements are presented based on the domicile of the counterparty because the counterparty has the legal obligation for repayment except where the underlying securities are U.S. Treasuries, in which case the domicile is in the U.S., and therefore, excluded from this presentation. For regulatory reporting under Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) guidelines, cross-border resale agreements are presented based on the domicile of the issuer of the securities that are held as collateral.

(5) Cross-border exposure includes amounts payable to the Corporation by borrowers or counterparties with a country of residence other than the one in which the credit is booked, regardless of the currency in which the claim is denominated, consistent with FFIEC reporting rules.

(6) Local country exposure includes amounts payable to the Corporation by borrowers with a country of residence in which the credit is booked, regardless of the currency in which the claim is denominated. Management subtracts local funding or liabilities from local exposures as allowed by the FFIEC. Total amount of available local liabilities funding local country exposure at March 31, 2006 was $24.8 billion compared to $24.2 billion at December 31, 2005. Local liabilities at March 31, 2006 in Asia Pacific and Latin America were $13.4 billion and $11.4 billion, of which $6.8 billion were in Hong Kong, $6.2 billion in Brazil, $4.1 billion in Singapore, $1.7 billion in both Argentina and Chile, $979 million in Mexico, $820 million in Korea, $799 million in Uruguay, and $612 million in India. There were no other countries with available local liabilities funding local country exposure greater than $500 million.

⁽⁷⁾ Securities/Other Investments includes an equity investment of $3.0 billion in China Construction Bank.

⁽⁹⁾ Securities/Other Investments includes an equity investment of $2.1 billion in Grupo Financiero Santander Serfin.

(10) The Corporation has risk mitigation instruments associated with certain exposures in Brazil, including structured trade-related transfer risk mitigation of $866 million and $830 million, third party funding of $151 million and $313 million, and linked certificates of deposit of $43 million and $59 million at March 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005. The resulting total foreign exposure net of risk mitigation was $2.2 billion and $2.3 billion at March 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005.

Information for periods beginning January 1, 2006 includes the MBNA acquisition; prior periods have not been restated.

Loans are classified as domestic or foreign based upon the domicile of the borrower.

(1) The decline in nonperforming securities was primarily driven by an exchange of nonperforming securities for performing securities in Argentina that resulted from the completion of a government mandated securities exchange program.

(2) Balances do not include $62 million, $50 million, $93 million, $49 million and $76 million of nonperforming commercial assets, primarily commercial loans held-for-sale, included in Other Assets at March 31, 2006, December 31, 2005, September 30, 2005, June 30, 2005 and March 31, 2005, respectively.

Earnings Highlights – 1st Qtr 2006

- Record earnings of $5 billion grew 14% over GAAP reported earnings in 1Q05 while EPS was steady due to MBNA dilution. On a proforma¹ basis and excluding merger charges net income grew 1%.
- Versus 1Q05 proforma, growth includes headwinds of $388 million higher credit provision expense as well as $645 million lower securities gains (approximately $.14 impact)
- 1Q06 highlighted by record market sensitive revenue with steady consumer growth and continuing commercial momentum.
- Total revenue, on a proforma basis, grew 10% over 1Q05.
 - Market sensitive revenue grew 55%
 - Other revenue grew 5%
- Expenses, excluding merger charges, grew 5% from last year resulting in a 5% operating leverage (revenue growth less expense growth).
- 1Q06 expense includes $320 million charge for FAS123R acceleration of equity based compensation expense for Rule of 60 eligible participants
- MBNA integration well underway and on track.

Upon acquisition of MBNA, in accordance with SOP 03-3, certain acquired loans that were considered impaired at the acquisition date were written down to fair value. Therefore, reported net charge-offs and managed losses for the held and managed portfolios for the first quarter of 2006 are lower since these impaired loans that would have produced charge-offs in the first quarter were reduced to fair value at the acquisition date. SOP 03-3 did not impact the securitized loan portfolio.

If SOP 03-3 was not applied, the Corporation's managed net charge-offs would have increased $71 million for credit card – domestic, $38 million for credit card – foreign, $60 million for direct/indirect consumer, $28 million for other consumer, for a total increase of $197 million in managed net charge-offs for total consumer.

Results shown are defined by Columbia Management's calculation of its percentage of assets under management in the top two quartiles of categories based on Morningstar (Equity categories, Lipper (Fixed Income categories) (iMoneyNet Money Marketfunds). The category percentile rank was calculated by ranking the three year gross return of share classes within the categories stated above. The assets of the number of funds within the top 2 quartile results include both were added and then divided by Columbia Managements total assets under management. Had fees been included, rankings would have been lower. Past performance is
