

Terms of the Notes

The Contingent Income Issuer Callable Yield Notes Linked to the Common Stock of Apple Inc. (the "Notes") provide a quarterly Contingent Coupon Payment of $23.125 on the applicable Contingent Payment Date if, on any quarterly Observation Date, the Observation Value of the Underlying Stock is greater than or equal to the Coupon Barrier. Beginning on May 25, 2021 and on each quarterly Call Date thereafter, we have the right to redeem all, but not less than all, of the Notes at 100% of the principal amount, together with the relevant Contingent Coupon Payment. No further amounts will be payable following an Optional Early Redemption. If the Notes are not called, at maturity you will receive the Redemption Amount, calculated as described under "Redemption Amount Determination".

(1) The "Return on the Notes" is calculated based on the Redemption Amount and potential final Contingent Coupon Payment, not including any Contingent Coupon Payments paid prior to maturity.

(2) This amount represents the sum of the principal amount and the final Contingent Coupon Payment.

(3) This is the Underlying Return which corresponds to the Coupon Barrier and Threshold Value.

Risk Factors

- Your investment may result in a loss; there is no guaranteed return of principal.
- Your return on the Notes is limited to the return represented by the Contingent Coupon Payments, if any, over the term of the Notes.
- The Notes are subject to Optional Early Redemption.
- You may not receive any Contingent Coupon Payments and the Notes do not provide for any regular fixed coupon payments.
- The Contingent Coupon Payment, Early Redemption Amount or Redemption Amount, as applicable, will not reflect the price of the Underlying Stock other than on the Observation Dates or the Valuation Date, as applicable.
- Your return on the Notes may be less than the yield on a conventional debt security of comparable maturity.
- Any payment on the Notes is subject to the credit risk of BofA Finance and the Guarantor, and actual or perceived changes in BofA Finance or the Guarantor's creditworthiness are expected to affect the value of the Notes.
- The public offering price you pay for the Notes will exceed their initial estimated value.
- We cannot assure you that a trading market for your Notes will ever develop or be maintained.
- The terms of the Notes will not be adjusted for all corporate events that could affect the issuer of the Underlying Stock.

You may revoke your offer to purchase the Notes at any time prior to the time at which we accept such offer on the date the Notes are priced. We reserve the right to change the terms of, or reject any offer to purchase, the Notes prior to their issuance. In the event of any changes to the terms of the Notes, we will notify you and you will be asked to accept such changes in connection with your purchase. You may also choose to reject such changes in which case we may reject your offer to purchase.
