Risk Factors

Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for a description of certain risks related to this investment, including, but not limited to, the following:

- If your notes are not called prior to maturity, your investment may result in a loss; there is no guaranteed return of principal.
- Payments on the notes are subject to the credit risk of BofA Finance and the credit risk of BAC, and actual or perceived changes in the creditworthiness of BofA Finance or BAC are expected to affect the value of the notes. If BofA Finance and BAC become insolvent or are unable to pay their respective obligations, you may lose your entire investment.
- The initial estimated value of the notes on the pricing date will be less than their public offering price.
- If you attempt to sell the notes prior to maturity, their market value may be lower than both the public offering price and the initial estimated value of the notes on the pricing date.
- If called, your return on the notes is limited to the applicable Call Premium.
- You will have no rights of a holder of the Basket Stocks, and you will not be entitled to receive shares of the Basket Stocks or dividends or other distributions by the issuers of the Basket Stocks.
- BAC and our other affiliates may from time to time own securities of the Underlying Companies, we do not control any Underlying Company, and have not verified any disclosures made by any Underlying Company.
- The Redemption Amount will not be adjusted for all corporate events that could affect a Basket Stock.
- The Basket is concentrated in the financial sector; an investment in the notes involves certain risks associated with an investment in companies in the financial sector.

Final terms will be set on the pricing date within the given range for the specified Market-Linked Investment. Please see the Preliminary Offering Documents for complete product disclosure, including related risks and tax disclosure.

Note Return at Maturity
