Risk Factors

- Your investment may result in a loss; there is no guaranteed return of principal.
- The Notes do not bear interest.
- The Redemption Amount will not reflect the levels of the Underlying other than on the Valuation Date.
- Your return on the Notes may be less than the yield on a conventional debt security of comparable maturity.
- Any payment on the Notes is subject to our credit risk and the credit risk of the Guarantor, and any actual or perceived changes in our or the Guarantor's creditworthiness are expected to affect the value of the Notes.
- The public offering price you pay for the Notes will exceed their initial estimated value.
- We cannot assure you that a trading market for your Notes will ever develop or be maintained.

You may revoke your offer to purchase the Notes at any time prior to the time at which we accept such offer on the date the Notes are priced. We reserve the right to change the terms of, or reject any offer to purchase, the Notes prior to their issuance. In the event of any changes to the terms of the Notes, we will notify you and you will be asked to accept such changes in connection with your purchase. You may also choose to reject such changes in which case we may reject your offer to purchase.
